PROJECT 1

Autumn Music Experience

Practice Project

This project helps you learn how to plan, deliver and evaluate an event. You will use what you learn when completing your formal Christmas assessment project.

PROJECT 1 | PRACTICE PROJECT

Autumn Music Experience brief

Client

King's Park Events Company — A fictional creative events company based within King's Park Secondary School.

Target audience

- P6 and P7 pupils;
- one primary class;
- a maximum of approximately 20 pupils;
- no previous musical experience is required.

Background

King's Park Events Company has been asked to create an engaging music experience for younger pupils. The aim is to introduce them to music, creativity, performance and the opportunities available at King's Park.

Primary pupils should experience a live performance and take part in creative workshops led by King's Park pupils.

Requirements

The class works as one events company. Smaller teams of around four or five pupils each must:

- create a performance;
- create a ten-minute interactive workshop;
- prepare the required resources;
- help deliver the event;
- contribute to a shared opening and/or finale.

Event format

The whole event should last approximately 60–75 minutes. Use a rotation system so the primary pupils move between team workshops.

Pupils may specialise in performing, presenting, workshop leadership, technical production, resources or organisation. Not every pupil must perform in the same way, but everyone must contribute.

PROJECT 1 | PRACTICE PROJECT

Understanding the brief and audience

Your task

Read the brief and explain what your team must create for the P6/P7 audience.

Why are you doing this?

A clear understanding of the brief helps your team choose ideas that are safe, enjoyable and realistic.

Steps

1. Identify the required event parts.
2. Think about what younger pupils need.
3. Record your answers in your own words.

Evidence to keep

Your completed brief and audience notes become part of your practice folio.

What must our class deliver?
What must our team create?
What might help P6/P7 pupils feel confident and included?
What could make an activity difficult for a musical beginner?

Success check

	Check
☐	I have identified the audience.
☐	I have identified the required performance and workshop.
☐	I have considered accessibility.

My first ideas

Your task

Develop at least one performance idea and one workshop idea before the team decides.

Why are you doing this?

Individual ideas give the team more creative choices and help everyone contribute to planning.

Evidence to keep

Your own ideas show your personal contribution to the planning discussion.

Practice model: Rhythm Makers • Performance: a short body-percussion performance. • Workshop: teach three rhythm patterns, then combine them into a group performance.

2. List your tasks.
3. Agree how the team will know each task is complete.

Outcome 3 — Evaluate the project

What this outcome means

I explain what worked, what could improve and what should be done differently next time.

Your task

Evaluate your own contribution, your team's contribution and the implementation of the project. Then identify at least two future action points.

Why are you doing this?

A strong evaluation uses specific evidence. It explains why something was effective or ineffective, rather than only saying that it was good or bad.

Steps

1. Use examples from planning, preparation and event delivery.
2. Identify strengths and areas for development.
3. Judge the plan, resources, techniques, equipment, safety and audience experience.
4. Write at least two specific actions for future creative projects.

Evidence to keep

Your completed evaluation is formal Outcome 3 evidence and must be your own work.

TEACHER ASSESSMENT PAGES

Formal outcomes and evidence requirements

Outcome 1 Contribute to the production of a plan for a creative project in response to a given brief.
Outcome 2 Contribute to the implementation of a creative project.
Outcome 3 Evaluate the creative project.

Required evidence

	Check
☐	Performance evidence and written and/or oral evidence cover all Outcomes and Performance Criteria.
☐	Written evidence is gathered in a candidate folio under open-book conditions.
☐	Outcome 1 includes supervised performance evidence, an assessor observation checklist and a copy of a group plan.
☐	Outcome 2 practical activities are supervised in a real or simulated working environment and supported by an assessor observation checklist.
☐	Practical activities are carried out safely and relevant health-and-safety guidelines are followed.
☐	Outcome 3 evidence is the candidate's own work and includes evaluation plus at least two future action points.
Local evidence design The booklet requires two agreed progress-review dates. The formal NAB wording requires review dates but does not specify a minimum number. The two-review requirement is a local strengthening of the evidence plan.
